PEOPLE: Unite us by your spirit O God.

LEADER: Wherever we gather, the power of the resurrected Christ is in our midst.

PEOPLE: Unite us by your spirit O God.

LEADER: United through the love of God, let us worship and praise. Let us pray.

ALL: We are Easter People who gather together to celebrate a time of new life, new beginnings.

Help us, God, to look for signs of Jesus' spirit among us today, and to feel you close to each of us. Amen.

*OPENING HYMN O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing #466

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of mercy, we are at times a people easily given to despair. When we look into the future, we often see ending and not beginnings. We confess that we can get entangled in the problems of this world and have trouble seeing hope for the future. We grow accustomed to sighing and in our cynicism, we evade your call to new life. Forgive us our lack of faith and restore in us a trust in your power to create new beginnings where we are not able to imagine them. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

In Christ we are forgiven and made new. Let us place our trust in God's promise of new and abundant life.

ALL: Thanks be to God! Amen.

One: When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them. We begin worship this morning with his words from the hillside.

Blessed are the poor in spirit,

All: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

One: Blessed are they who mourn,

One: Blessed are the meek,

All: for they shall possess the earth.

One: Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for justice,

All: for they shall be satisfied.

All: for they shall obtain mercy.

One: Blessed are the pure of heart,

PRAYER OF CONFESSION/ASSURANCE OF PARDON Hanna and Avery Moore

So often the things that divide are trivial things ~ not much different from stars upon bellies. We who are Christians need to recognize and appreciate more fully the family traits that unite us.

We are all created by God. We are both alike and different from one another, but God called the whole of Creation good.

There is purpose in life for each and every one of us. Just as the prophets in the Old Testament were called, we too are called for a purpose.

All of us have fallen short of what God requires. We deceive ourselves if we think we have not sinned. But to acknowledge this does not mean accepting it as the last word.

We share in the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. God loves us despite our failings. This is by far the most important basis for our unity.

Proclaiming and celebrating unity in our church means learning from our differences instead of allowing them to divide us. It means encouraging others and not boasting about our own accomplishments. It means courting a spirit of gratitude instead of pride. It means that we cannot and will not separate our love for God from one another. Amen

*HYMN Sing a Song of the Saints of God

- 1. I sing a song of the saints of God,
patient and brave and true,
who toiled and fought and lived and died
for the Lord they loved and knew.
And one was a doctor, and one was a queen,
and one was a shepherdess on the green;
they were all of them saints of God, and I mean,
God helping, to be one too.

- 2. They lived not only in ages past;
there are hundreds of thousands still.
The world is bright with the joyous saints who love to do Jesus' will.
You can meet them in school, on the street, in the store,
in church, by the sea, in the house next door;
they are saints of God, whether rich or poor,
and I mean to be one too.

“It takes a village to raise a child.” This old adage holds a wealth of truth. None of us can stand alone. We are all dependent on each other. The responsibility to ensure that our children live happy, healthy lives belongs to all of us. It is our honor and challenge to make sure this next generation succeeds. Please consider being part of our ” village” at Colchester Federated Church as a teacher, assistant, substitute, youth group leader or helper, discipleship mentor, VBS volunteer...
